

- Name on the BACK of the board
- If you are including pictures, make sure you do not include your face
- No live specimens in front of your board
- DO NOT put your name on the front of the composition book. You should put your name on the last page of the composition book and then fold it over so it is not initially visible when it is opened.

